

A Winter Wedding

There can never be a more magical time to get married than during the winter months.

The changing colour of the leaves on the trees, the white frost on the ground and the clear starlit winter skies creating a feeling of something very special.

A red carpet welcome awaits you and your guests followed by a glass of mulled wine and canapes of mini goat's cheese and red onion tartlets and mini Yorkshire pudding filled with beef and horseradish.

The Suite Bar and Lobby is adorned with small white lights and large candles light up the bar.

You and your guests take your seats for the Wedding Breakfast with round tables of white linen and white chair covers and ice blue sashes.

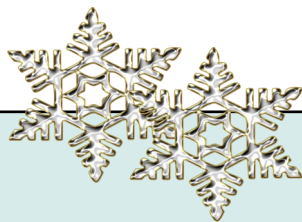

The tables have a centre piece of cream and ice blue arrangements surrounded by tea lights and in all the windows around the room are large candlesticks giving off a warm glow.

Raise a glass of pink champagne for the toast.

Celebrate in to the evening with the resident DJ and a hot snack for your guests
